DAY ONE Saturday

» Albury/Wodonga to Tallangatta

» 40km.

We meet at Tallarook at 8.30am for our transfer to the start of the High Country Trail. From here, we jump on our bikes and enjoy a very scenic ride out of Wodonga and along the banks of Lake Hume. Following our ride, we board the bus for a short road trip to Beechworth our overnight stop.

» Transfer for overnight at Beechworth

DAY TWO Sunday

» Beechworth to Myrtleford

» 42km.

After a morning look around Beechworth, we hop on our bikes and join our next rail trail for a gentle ride down to Myrtleford our overnight stop. Cruising past some stunning views and wineries, don't forget to stop and sample some of their product.

» Optional Lake Buffalo ride add 50km

DAY THREE Monday

» Myrtleford to Bright

» 30km. Rail Trail Day

Today is a fairly short days ride into Bright. There is a stunning optional ride out to the Buckland Valley (add 40km) This is well worth the trip.

» Optional Buckland Valley Loop add 40km

DAY FOUR Tuesday

» Rest Day

» Transfer Day Bright to Mansfield

Today is a day off the bike. We get some time to explore Bright before boarding our bus for Mansfield. We stop for lunch and Sam Miranda Winery for a sumptuous feast and wine tasting along the way.

DAY FIVE Wednesday

» Mansfield to Yarck

» 56km.

We start on our third rail trail for the trip. As we head out of Mansfield, you notice the open fields with Mt Buller in the background. We ride over Eildon Dam on the dedicated cycle bridge into Bonnie Doon for a coffee stop. From here we have a gradual climb to the Merton gap, the highest point on the trail before we run down into the tiny town of Yarck for tonight's stop.

» Optional extra ride

DAY SIX Thursday

» Yarck to Yea Via Alexandra

» 49km.

Today we have the option of doing the 13km return trip to Alexandra if desired. This section of the trail has many great sights including crossing the Goulburn River and the Cheviot Tunnel the second highest point on the trail a highlight of this trail.

DAY SEVEN Friday

» Yea to Tallarook

» 41km.

This is our final days ride, and yes all good things come to an end. Through steep valleys and sweeping views of the Goulburn river, we cycle our way to our final destination where our journey started 7 days ago. There are many photo points along this section of trail so make sure you stop and reflect on the weeks ride.
